

Laboratory Medicine Bulletin

---

Discontinuation: Tricyclic Antidepressant Screen

April 21, 2015

As of April 21, 2015, the St. Paul's Hospital laboratory will discontinue offering a qualitative screen for tricyclic antidepressants (TCAs). Requests for TCA analysis will be forwarded to the Provincial Toxicology laboratory for quantitative analysis. This action has been taken in consultation with various specialties including chemistry, toxicology and emergency medicine.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions:

M. DeMarco

Mari DeMarco, PhD DABCC
Clinical Chemist, Providence Health Care
Clinical Assistant Professor, University of British Columbia
Department of Pathology & Laboratory Medicine
mdemarco@providencehealth.bc.ca
Tel: 604.806.8470